Gassaway, West Virginia — Mountaineer Food Bank is pleased to announce a generous donation of $11,880 from Jan Dils, Attorneys at Law, in support of our Veterans Table Feeding Program for 2024. This philanthropic contribution is part of Jan Dils' initiative, "Feeding 30 Veterans Each Month in 2024," celebrating the law firm's 30th anniversary.

Jan Dils, Attorneys at Law, has long been committed to supporting the local community, and their dedication to addressing the issue of food insecurity among Veterans is both admirable and impactful. The firm's generous donation will go directly towards aiding the Veterans Table program, which plays a crucial role in providing nutritious meals to Veterans in need throughout West Virginia.

"We firmly believe in serving those who have served us. It is an honor to help Mountaineer Food Bank provide healthy meals to our Veterans in need. No one, absolutely no one, in this great nation should ever go to bed hungry – especially those who have given so much for our country," said Jan Dils, founder of Jan Dils, Attorneys at Law.

According to Feeding America, over 13,000 veterans in West Virginia struggle with food insecurity, facing the challenge of putting adequate meals on their tables daily. Mountaineer Food Bank recognizes the urgent need to support these heroes who have served our nation, and thanks to Jan Dils, Attorneys at Law's commitment to making a difference, the impact will be substantial.

"This donation will enable us to enhance our Veterans Table Program, ensuring that more Veterans receive the nourishment they deserve," said Breanna George, Chief of Development for Mountaineer Food Bank. "This contribution aligns with the broader mission of Mountaineer
